

Occupational Therapy

Assessment and therapy for children to promote their participation in play and everyday activities. Therapists assist children to develop fine motor skills, gross motor skills and support the development of sensory processing and independence with self-care skills (e.g. toileting).

